became bold, and treason astonished the whole world by bringing at once into the field military forces superior in numbers to the standing army of the United States. Every department of the Government was paralyzed by treason. Defection appeared in the Senate, in the House of Representa-tives, in the Cabinet and in the Federal courts. Ministers and consuls returned from foreign countries to enter the insurrectionary councils, or land or naval forces. Commanding and other officers in the army and in the navy betrayed the councils or deserted their posts for commands in the insurgent forces. Treason was fiagrant in tailed to guard the prisoners at the camps the revenue and the postoffice services, as herein designated. well as in the Territorial Governments and in the Indian reserves.

Not only Governors, Judges, Legislators and Ministerial officers in the States, but even whole States rushed one after another, with apparent unanimity, into rebellion. The Capital was beleaguered, and its connection with all the States out off. Even in the portions of the country which were most loyal, political combinations and societies were found furthering the work of disunion; while, from motives of disloyalty or cupidity, or from excited passions or perverted sympathies, individuals were found furnishing men, money, materials of war and supplies, to the insurgents' military and naval forces. Armies, ships, fortifications, navy yards, arsenals, military posts and garrisons, one after another, were betrayed or abandoned to the insurgents. Congress had not anticipated and so had not provided for the emergency. The municipal authorities were powerless and inactive. The Judicial machinery seemed as if it had been designed not to sustain the Government, but to embarrass and be tray it. Foreign intervention was openly invited and industriously instigated by the abettors of the insurrection, and it became imminent, and has only been prevented by the practice of strict and impartial justice, with the most perfect moderation, in our intercourse with other nations. The public mind was alarmed and apprehensive, though fortunately not distracted or disheartened. It seemed to be doubtful whether the Federal Government, which one year ago had been thought a model worthy of universal acceptto invade their State, and least of all did How McClellan's Plan of Campaign seen him further South than Dixie before he little rebel craft, but it did not come, and a perhaps were unavoidable, suffered by newly levied and insufficient forces, discouraged the loyal and gave new hopes to shot from either side. Examinations of such cases were instituted; and some of the persons so arrested have been discharged, from time to time, under circumstances, or upon conditions, compatible, as was thought, with the public safety. Meantime a favorable change of public opinion has occurred. The line between loyalty and disloyalty is plainly defined. The whole structure of the Government is firm and stable. By order of the President, EDWIN M. STANTON,

Secretary of War. It is said that McClellan will be able o do more, since we have a Secretary of War. From all accounts, he was obliged to perform his own duties and those also, while the late Secretary was feathering his nest and those of his friends. And our General knows what he is about. A man escaped from Manassas the other day, and at once demanded to be taken to McClellan. His object was to warn the General not to attack Manassas, with its strong defences and miles of rifle pits. The General turned, and taking up a map said, "Does this look like any place you ever saw?" It was, indeed, a plan of the whole place, rifle pits and all. This man, from Florida, had been, in Southern phrase, "compelled to volunteer." He knew of Union people enough, and enough that were sick of the but he did not know of many who would enlist again when the year of service should expire. — Washington Correspondence Springfield Republican.

There are two water batteries-the upper one with a heavy rifled 32 pounder and 32 pounder carronades. The lower battery contains eight 32 pounders and one 10 inch columbiad, mounted in the embrasures. 2,000 barrels of flour, 1,200 boxes beef, and a large mount of other provisions were found to day.

All of the day has been occupied embark ing the prisoners, gathering up stores and munitions, and burying the dead. There are a great number of dead rebels still un-

Capt. Lagow, aid to Gen. Grant, goes up to Clarksville to morrow under a flag of truce with the bodies of two Colonels, and to effect an exchange of wounded prisoners who have been sent to Nashville. Taylor's battery was charged on five times on Saturday, each time repulsing the enemy with great slaughter.

It is currently reported that Gov. Harris of Tennessee has ordered all Tennesseeans to lay down their arms.

Sr. Louis, Feb. 19. - The Democrat's Fort Donelson correspondent says the rebel and Federal officers fraternize with the best

The assertion in yesterday's dispatch respecting the Union sentiment prevailing among the prisoners here is much strengthened by subsequent interviews with them The remark holds especially true of the Tennessee regiments. The best officers among them are those who yielded to the popular madness at the eleventh hour They say they are sick of this unnatural war. Misled by politicians first, and be-trayed by the Generals since, they have become most thoroughy disgusted with the bogus Confederacy and desire to withdraw the mark, and we confidently expect it will be rising

Gen. Grant is vigorously arranging for a speedy forward movement to still greater victories. Rebel officers assert that General Johnston will concentrate every available soldier at his command at Nashviile and make a desperate attempt to retrieve the misfortunes of the past.

The rebal surgeons place their loss at between 300 and 400 killed and double that number wounded.

Sr. Louis, Feb. 19 .- A Union scout, who has been operating up the Tennessee and issued. Cumberland rivers, reached here this morning, and reported that one span of the Mempuis and Charleston R.R. bridge, crossing the Tennessee at Decatur, Ala., was destroyed on Saturday last, by Union men in that vicinity. It was reported that the bridge at Bridgeport, some 70 miles above, had also disabled, but this is not confirmed. The Republican's Cairo dispatch says the latest advices from Donelson report the gun. boat St Louis, Capt. Paulding, proceeded up the Cumberland to Clarksville, and found the enemy abandening that place in a panic. Two large flats, laden with munitions of war, were captured. A rolling mill just below Clarksville was burnt. Everything was being moved to Nashville as fast as possible, where the next rebel stand would be made. Everything at Donelson is progressing satisfactorily. Our army is encamped in the captured fort, having comfortable quar-ters in leg huts and tents. The late garrison soldiers are very enthusiastic, anxious to march at once against Nash

A large number of rebel prisoners were brought down yesterday. They belonged on the Cumberland river, and as they passed their homes they looked wistfully for some face of recogniton, under the impression that they would be paroled. When they found they were to be sent north they were ready to take any oath. Two-thirds manifest a desire to return to their allegiance, and some acknowledged they had been humbugged into their present unfortunate position. Six thousand prisoners have already arrived here. Others will be brought down as soon as transportation can

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 -The Kangaroo has arrived with dates to the 6th.

The Nashville was last seen on the 8d outside of the Needles, steaming down the channel. There is no confirmation of the report that another Federal vessel, supposed to be the Brooklyn, was cruising off the Isle of Wight. There were rumors of a three masted paddle steamer, supposed to be a privateer, off Cape Clear. At the annual meeting of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, the blocking up of Charleston harbor was strongly denounced, and the efficiency of the blockade questioned, but continued non-intervention was geterally approved. A letter was read from Cobden showing the paramount impotance of settling belligerent rights and the necessity of England agreeing to the American doctrine relative to private property at sea.

Bright, in a speech at Birmingham, denied that the American blockade was in-efficient and ridiculed the idea that America was in a position to be trampled on. He pointed out the dangers of interference and urged neutrality.

It is stated that Minister Adams does not conceal his indignation at Earl Russell's late letter to the Admirality relative to the use of British ports. There are also considerable differences in political circles as to the fact that the Allies and their armies shall march on the Capital of Mexico next month, and the report is prevalent and gave strength that the Arch Duke Maximilian will be tendered the throne of Mexico. It is asserted that the French Government is determined to reverse and modify the navigation laws.

There are popular demonstrations in Parma and Florence against the Pope and in Gvor of Victor Emanuel.

RIVER MATTERS. be at this point the river was at a stand all day yesthis morning; and, as the Cumberland is reported to be rising, it is fair to suppose that the Kentucky and Alle gheny will also be up, as they all have their sources in the same region. Yesterday was rainy, drizzly, ugly and disagreeable in every respect. In business, there was next to nothing done on the levee. The Major Anderson, Cincinnati; Dove, Kentucky river; and Star Grey Eagle, to Henderson, were the only arrivals and departures of business boats. The Great Western and Judge Torrence came down from above yesterday. They have altered to a very old-fashioned appearance, so as to fit them for

There was but little business transacted at the wharf, both (the receipts and shipments being limited. The news of the capture of Fort Donelson created much rejoicing among our steamboatmen. All the steamers at the wharf run up their colors, which was followed by an almost instantaneous ringing of bells, attracting large crowds of citizens to the levee.

The Marengo was reported aground at "Glass House" yesterday afternoon, but it was expected that she would be able to get in during the night. The Diadem was sticking between here and Beaver, and the Ida May is laid up at Wellesville waiting for more water. The Wheeling boat was the only departure for below.

A dispath was forwarded to Secretary Stanton yesterday, stating that, if he desired, twenty-five or thirty steamboats could be placed at his disposal on twelve hours notice. The number could be greatly augmented in a few days, if necessary.

Mr. Downing offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz : Resolved, That the Committee on Military Affairs inquire into the propriety and necessity of raising volunteer military companies in the border counties of this Commonweaith, to protect such counties from unlawful maranding bands, and that they inquire into the condition of the State to furnish said companies with arms, &c., and that they report to this House at the earliest day practicable by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Conklin offered the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on Banks, viz :

on Banks, viz:

WHERLAS. The country is laboring under serious pecuniary embarrassment, growing out of the war in which we are involved, the circulating medium greatly diminished, causing great depreciation in the value of property, to remedy which, relief laws, such as valuation, stay, or suspension laws, will likely be proposed at the present seasion, the expediency and constitutionality of which are of doubtful import—to avoid which, and afford relief to the debtor class

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inq tire into the expediency and propriety of reassing a law, by which the Banks of the State shall make loans amongst the citizens of each Congressional district, in limited amounts, upon the same being well secured, similar to those made under the act approved March 8th, 1842. J. B. MONTGOMERY'S

DYEING, SCOURING, AND TAILORING ESTABlishment, is on Jefferson street, north side, between Third and Fourth, No. 316, where the above named work is done in a style that surpasses anything in this community. Owners feel disappointed when they see their old clothes; they present a very different appearance for a reasonable consideration.

Those philosophers who insist that dress makes the man, can put their philosophy to the test at a very triding expense, by calling at J. H. MONTGOMERY'S establishment. Those who have dilapidated wardrobes would do well to have them pass through my hands;
they will find it profitable by so doing. All work piaced in my care is done with neatness and dispatch.
All kinds of Glothing made to order on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms.
I feel grateful to the community for their liberal patronage, and I fatter myself that I have given satisfaction, or else I could not have the ever-crowd of work that is daily brought to my shop; and the cry is, "Still they come." It is the whole cry. If you want your work done right, go to Montgomery's; there you will be pleased, for he is the one that can do it. Let those be longing to the fraternity bring, their work along, and have it done in a handsome style.

Intending to devote his own time and attention to the business, and to surround himself with competent assistants, together with faithful, polite and attentive servants, he gives the assurance to the public that no efforts on his part shall be vasting to make the old Phasnix in all respects worthy of its reputation in its rainingst days.

Phonix in all respects worsely of the paintest days., Professions, however, are too easily and too frequently made to be of much value unless accompanied by corresponding acts, and he therefore only asks that the public may test the sincerity of his pieces by giving ulm a cail. They will always find him ready to minister to their comforts in the best manner in his power.
